Keys to Successful Incarceration

All sessions will begin at 10:00 a.m.

Have you recently been sentenced to a custody period in the Bureau of Prisons (BOP)? Do you have questions about serving time in a federal prison facility?

Some of these questions may include:

Will I be housed close to my family? What can I bring? Who can visit me?
Will I have access to the internet? Will I serve my entire sentence?

If you have questions like these, you will want to participate in “Keys to Successful Incarceration,” which is an orientation program offered by U.S. Pretrial Services. This program will provide literature as well as offer a “question and answer” period that will provide you information regarding your future incarceration.

If you would like to participate contact your pretrial services officer.
