more than $50 if someone uses your credentials without your permission to authorize a debit transaction. If you do NOT tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your authentication credentials, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your authentication credentials without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your financial institution account statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after your financial institution statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods. We will not send you a periodic statement listing transactions that you make. The transactions will appear on the account statement issued by your financial institution. PRINT OUT AND SAVE A COPY OF YOUR PAYMENT CONFIRMATION THAT IS DISPLAYED WHEN YOU APPROVE A PAYMENT AND CHECK IT AGAINST THE ACCOUNT STATEMENT YOU RECEIVE FROM YOUR FINANCIAL INSTITUTION. If you have authorized us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments if you contact us sufficiently in advance. In some instances, you can cancel payments yourself online. We may not be able to stop the payment if you do not contact us at least [REDACTED]
